ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-24

Agenda:

1. Review of previous meeting.
2. Review of Academic activities organized as per plan of action.
3. Preparations to be done for NAAC PEER TEAM visit.
4. Inviting IQAC members to attend on PEER TEAM visits days
5. Information regarding preparation done for PEER TEAM visit.
6. Strengthen Alumni Association
7. Faculty development programmes
8. Any other discussion with the permission of Chairperson.

Proceedings:

IQAC Coordinator, Smt Revanamba B sought blessings of His Holiness Jagadguru Sri Shiyarathri Deshikendra Mahaswamiji and extended cordial welcome to the Hon'ble Members of IQAC.

1. IQAC Coordinator provided a review of the college's academic activities for the year 2023-24, focusing on the necessary steps taken for NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) accreditation. This likely includes discussing improvements, compliance with quality standards, documentation, and other related activities required for the accreditation process.

2. The Principal narrated the college preparations done for NAAC TEAM visit. He informed about documents prepared, arrangements done for PEER members.

As part of the accreditation process, maintaining proper documentation and evidence of the activities, policies, and outcomes achieved is crucial. The review could have touched on the efforts to ensure that the documentation is comprehensive and accurate.

3. The discussion about expanding Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs) with various organizations, including industrial sectors and NGOs, is a strategic move aimed at fostering collaboration and enhancing opportunities for students and faculty. Here's how such MOUs contribute to the academic and institutional goals:

4. IQAC member Dr Sheela Kumari told about Industry Collaboration: MOUs with industries offer students exposure to real-world applications of their academic knowledge.

5. It was suggested that faculty members should present a minimum of two research articles annually.
6. As part of the accreditation process, maintaining proper documentation and evidence of the activities, policies, and outcomes achieved is crucial. The review could have touched on the efforts to ensure that the documentation is comprehensive and accurate.
7. The Chairperson invited all IQAC members to meet the PEER team members during their visit to the college signifies an important step in the NAAC accreditation process.
8. Mr. Niranjanamurthy's suggestion to take proper measures to strengthen the alumni association of the college is a valuable recommendation. A robust alumni network can provide long-term benefits to the institution, including enhancing its reputation, creating opportunities for students, and fostering connections that support academic and extracurricular growth.
8. Discussed on organizing the Faculty development programs through the Women Empowerment Cell: Mind Mapping, Presentation Skills, Positive Thinking, Decision Making, Mental Health and Stress Management.
9. Promoting staff and students to take up online courses on MOOCs, SWAYAM and NPTEL online platforms as one of the best practices for the next academic year. As these platforms offer diverse courses, fostering continuous learning and enhancing skills at one's pace. It aligns with lifelong learning principles, enriches teaching methods, and integrates contemporary knowledge into the curriculum for a better learning experience.
10. Mr. Mallesha R, IQAC Co-coordinator Proposed vote of thanks.
